August 24, 2010

The regular monthly meeting of the Crescent Outlaws Saddle Club was called to order at 7:12 pm with 14 members in attendance.

The Secretary's report was read and approved as read.

The Treasurer reported $1,593.63 as our current balance.

We made $319.90 on the poker ride and $413 on the silent auction for a total of $732.90 as profit from the poker ride.

There were no birthdays or anniversaries.

Dan Kvigne contributed $2 to the bucking fund. He claimed it was because his horse knelt down to drink (It doesn't even sound like a likely story).

Peg thanked everyone who worked at the fun show. She reported it was nice but very hot. We received $75 in free-will donations. Dee Reeves suggested we hold it later in the year so it will be cooler.

Ellen made a motion to donate 25 percent of our poker ride proceeds to the cancer society. Motion passed. We will be donating $185 to the American Cancer Society.

REMINDER: Membership dues are due this month. Please send your membership dues to Dan Kvigne at 23338 Juniper Rd., Underwood, IA, 51576. It is $15 for a single and $20 for a family.

Dianne Jacobsen made a motion to hold the soup supper at the Crescent Firebarn. Motion passed. The November monthly meeting will be held at the firebarn with our soup supper.

Jo Stessman made a motion that we have our Christmas party at the McClelland Hall. Motion passed. More info to come.

Margine Henry, a former club member, is looking for people to help maintain the Wabash Trace Horse Trail. Please call her at 712-323-9391 if you would like to volunteer to work on the horse trail.

Sue Maiwald gave an informative presentation on Competitive Trailriding. If anyone is interested in participating or just in learning more information about competitive trailriding, please contact her.

Carsten Farm Days near Shelby, Iowa are September 11th and 12th. They are looking for people to help park cars. Please contact Julie or Bob McCool at 712-744-3697 if you would like to help park cars.

Jo Stessman camped at Branched Oaks with horses and said it was very nice. Pattianne reported the Nebraska Horse Council will be putting in corrals at the park soon.

Sue Maiwald won the door prize and will carry it forward.

Dee Nelson brought horse treats to the meeting and passed them out to anyone who wanted some. Thanks, Dee – My horses thank you also.

Jim & Sandy Bolte talked a little about their four-week trip to Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. The McCools, Dennis, Dan, Ellen and Pam joined them along the way. Sounds like a good time was had by all.
